	)	Case No. 13-15306 (JKF)

ORDER

Upon consideration of the Motion (the "motion") filed by Gary F. Seitz, Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee) of Atashbeharm Corporation, Inc., (the "Debtors") for an Order authorizing the Trustee to Sell Certain Assets (the "Sale Asset") Pursuant to Sections 363(b) and (f) Title 11 of the Unites States Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code") and to Abandon Sale Assets not sold at Auction Pursuant to Section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code, and it appearing that the requested relief is in the best interest of the estate and creditors, the Court being satisfied that:

(i) the sale of the Sale Assets are necessary and in the best interest of the Trustee, debtor, its creditors and its estate;

(ii) the sale of the Sale Assets contemplated by the Motion being a sound exercise of the Trustee's business judgment and being in good faith;

(iii) and appearing that notice of the Motion having been given to the Office of the United States Trustee, the debtor, creditors and other notice parties;

(iii) and it appearing that no other notice need be given;

(iv) this Court having jurisdiction over the Motion;

(v) after any proceedings in respect of this matter; and

(vi) sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is ORDERED that pursuant to § 363(b) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to sell the Sale Asset, where is, as is, without representation, warranty, statement or guaranty whether express or implied, free and clear of interests, for due consideration to the highest bidder at public auction through his auctioneer Quaker City Auctioneers;

it is further ORDERED that pursuant to §554 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sale Assets not sold at the public auction are deemed abandoned and the Chapter 7 Trustee is discharged of any and all duties, liabilities or claims arising from or related to the Sale Assets; and it is further ORDERED that the Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to take any actions necessary to effectuate the terms of this Order and the relief in the Motion without further Order of this Court.
